The Boy and the Beanstalk

Once upon a time, there was a boy with a cow. One day, the boy went to the market. Suddenly, an old man asked the boy, "if you give me your cow, I will give you magic beans in return." The boy gave the cow to the old man and he gave magic beans to the boy.

When the boy told his mum all about it, his mom was angry that he gave the cow away, so his mother threw the magic beans into the garden.

The next day, the boy saw a huge beanstalk, it kept on growing fast into the sky. The boy was curious and climbed up the beanstalk.

When he got to the top, there were food, money, and a cow that looked the same as the old cow, so he took all the stuff and went down the beanstalk.

In the end, his mother was proud of him because they now had plenty of money and food, all thanks to him.

A Letter to My Friend

5th May, 2023

Dear Ronald,

I enjoy my life in London. I felt delighted. I like going to Green Park in London because I can have a picnic and go cycling in Green Park.

I didn't visit Cheung Po Tsai Cave the last time I visited Hong Kong. If I can go there next time, I want to go inside the cave and pretend to be a pirate. And I didn't visit Kowloon Walled City Park either. I want to take many photos if I can go there next time. I visit Ocean Park last time. I saw some dolphins. I liked them very much. I also visited Ngong Ping 360 the last time I visited Hong Kong. I went hiking near Ngong Ping 360. I liked there too.

I like Hong Kong because Hong Kong is a beautiful city. Please write back soon.

Love,
Aunt Shirley

Camping Day

Last week, Julia and her parents went camping. First, Julia's dad set up the tent with a hammer and some nails. Julia and her mum saw some colourful flowers. However, they did not pick them up because they knew picking flowers would destroy the nature.

After that, Julia was very bored when Mum was taking the food out of the heavy rucksack, like sandwiches and sushi. Therefore, Julia went to a giant forest. There were lots of animals.

Then, Julia came to a large and pitch-black cave. She thought, 'If I go inside this cave, where will I go? Will I go to a treasure, a monster or the future?'

Since Julia was very scared, she did not enter the cave. She wanted to get back to the camp site. However, she was lost. At last, her parents found Julia. She was very happy to see her parents. She learnt that she must follow her parents next time.

A Movie Day

Today, my family and I went to the cinema. We went to the cinema because we watched a film there. The film's name was 'Dinosaurs'. I felt very excited.

In the beginning, my parents bought a box of popcorn. It looked very scrumptious. Then, I went to the toilet before watching the film. So I asked my parents, 'May I go to the toilet? I will come back soon.' My parents replied, 'Sure!'

After that, I went to the movie theatre after I went out from the toilet. My parents were not at the movie theatre. It was dark, so I could hardly see where my parents were. I was very afraid.

At last, I immediately ran to the security guard and asked him for help, 'I cannot find my parents, can you help me please?' He replied, 'Sure!' The security guard helped me find my parents. I was thankful to him. We also invited him to watch the film together. I thought the film was very impressive!

A Lesson Learnt

Yesterday Jacky studied hard in his bedroom because his final exam would be held tomorrow. He felt very worried and terrified because he didn't get high marks in his last exam.

When he felt bored, he swept the floor in the living room, did the washing-up in the kitchen, but he wanted to go to the library. Mum walked the dog in the park. When she walked the dog, she kept singing her favourite song.

When she arrived home, the dog was starving, so Jacky gave it some dog food. Suddenly Jacky's dog barked at him, that made him drop the bowl and it broke. Jacky yelled furiously, 'Oh my gosh! You made me drop the bowl and now it's broken!'

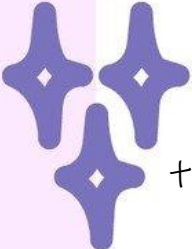

Jacky punished his dog because it made Jacky drop and break the bowl. Jacky yelled, 'You are a bad dog, you are not allowed to play outside anymore. Jacky's dog regretted and felt guilty for what it did. Jacky learned that everyone makes mistakes, even animals. We can all learn from our mistakes, so Jacky promised himself that he should give all people second chances.

A Visit to the Zoo

4th February, 2023

Sunny

Daisy and I went to the zoo this morning. The weather was hot and the sky was blue. I learnt a good lesson today!

After we arrived there, we went to see the monkeys because they were energetic and lovely. Then I asked Daisy, 'Have you ever fed the animals before?' 'Never. We shouldn't feed the animals. Look! There is a sign that reminded us not to feed animals,' Daisy replied seriously.

However, I didn't listen to Daisy and gave a banana to the monkey. When the monkey saw the banana, it jumped up and down with excitement. Suddenly, I took the banana back immediately and the monkey was shocked and stood frozen.

Meanwhile, the monkey was irritated and grabbed my hand violently. I shouted for help loudly and felt extremely painful. At the same time, Daisy's eyes widened in horror and shook with fear.

Luckily, a zookeeper rushed to help me. He explained to us that it was very dangerous. I felt sorry and learnt an unforgettable lesson. Also, I promised I wouldn't do it again.

Animal in Danger

Giant pandas are one of the most beloved animals in the world. Giant pandas are mammals. They have very thick hair. They live in China. They become endangered because large-scale deforestation.

One of the main reasons for the decline of giant pandas' populations is the growth of the human population in China. Pandas' habitat gets taken over by development. Giant pandas' habitat destruction also leads to food shortages. If one type of bamboo is destroyed by development, it can leave the pandas with nothing to eat during the time it blooms: There are now only 2000 pandas left in the wild. If people keep cutting down trees, they will be soon extinct in the future.

The first step to protect giant pandas is to stop people destroying the forest. It is important because they will become endangered. Help make this world a fairer place for all animals!

The Robbery

Last Friday, I went to the supermarket to buy some food. Since I didn't have enough milk and bread in the house, I decided to buy some. There were so many different kinds of food in the supermarket such as cheese, candies, peanut butter, jam and sugar. Therefore, I used almost ten minutes to find them! What a pain!

After that, I decided to walk back home. When I walked across the park, I saw a man standing behind me. Suddenly, he took out a sharp knife from his pocket. He used the knife to stab my arm and stole my handbag quickly. My arm was bleeding like a waterfall and I was totally scared and I cried loudly. Then, I went to the hospital as fast as I can.

After going to the hospital, I went to a police station to report the robbery. I described the robber in details. I said, 'The robber was wearing a black and white striped T- shirt and jeans when he robbed me. He is tall and slim and is with dark brown hair, a long nose and a big mouth. He also has some freckles and a scar on his face.' The policeman said, 'Thank you so much, Mrs Wong. This is all the information that we need.'

After a few hours, the police arrested the robber and I finally got my handbag back. I was literally over the moon. When I was on my way back home, I was singing and smiling happily. I was also looking at the beautiful round moon when I walked back home. I sighed, 'What a tiring day!'

The Robbery

Last Friday, I went to the supermarket to prepare the food for a birthday party. I grabbed whatever I could find like flour, eggs and milk to make a birthday cake. I also brought some paper plates along the way.

After I walked across the park to get back to my house, suddenly, I heard a strange noise behind me so I turned around. A robber suddenly took my handbag and ran away. He was holding a knife so he cut my arm a bit. It was bleeding a lot. I couldn't run after him because he was running too fast.

I ran into the police station and told the police what happened. I was still in shock that time. I told them that the robber was a man with long black hair and a beanie. He also had a scar on his face. He also wore a white t-shirt and black jeans.

The police said they would take care of it. I calmed down a bit and waited for the police. After a while the police told me that they found him! He said that the robber was a fake cop acting like he was working in the police station. My jaw dropped on the floor. They gave me my hand bag back. I was glad that my handbag wouldn't go missing forever.

My Primary School Life

There are some special memories in my primary school life.

My most exciting time was when my school held the Sports Day. All of the students had to join at least one activity. Everyone practised his or her own event hard and hoped to win a medal. On that day, all the students did their best. The cheering teams cheered for their own houses. And my most unforgettable time was that I stood on the running tracks and got ready to run. When I was a primary one student, I also joined the Sports Day. However, I was very nervous when I stood on running tracks and cried suddenly. Everyone was shocked. Although it was very embarrassing. I learnt to be brave!

My most unforgettable time was when my primary five class teacher had to leave Hong Kong. Miss Cheung was a kind teacher. She not only taught me a lot of things and made me grow up, but also talked with me when I was sad. Although we were upset about Miss Cheung, we drew and wrote something to her for memories. Recall the past when I was a primary three student, it was my first time that I saw Miss Cheung. She has long brown hair and a beautiful face. She was a young teacher, but she took care of us very well, just like my mother. When we did something wrong, she would teach us patiently and told us not to do the wrong things again. When we were sad, she would comfort us and made us smile again. Therefore, we gave Miss Cheung some memories and thanked for her care. I wish Miss Cheung will come back to Hong Kong and visit us one day.

I will never forget my unforgettable primary school life!
